

National General Term Life – Critical Illness

A plan to help you reduce the financial impact of a death or critical illness on your family.

Why choose Term Life – Critical Illness?

Term Life - Critical Illness insurance from National General can reduce the impact of your death on your family's life. This plan pays cash directly to your beneficiaries to use any way they need.

In the event of a critical illness, the plan pays cash directly to you to use in any way you need, from replacing lost income to paying expenses that other plans don't pay.

There are several benefit options to choose from, so you can find the plan that fits your needs and budget the best. Term Life – Critical Illness is a strategy for facing the unthinkable and protecting yourself and the people you love.
